President's Message

Bob Ferenc President

Greetings NAR,

As we enter the fall season, I can't help but reflect on all that NAR has accomplished this year. Starting with our officers and board of directors, I cannot thank them enough for their support and advice in promoting and helping the growth of our club. To all our members who stepped up as volunteers, offered suggestions and advice, took pictures, and attended our business meetings and events. Thank you, everyone! I am looking forward to a great 2027 for NAR.

Now!

What is the 1st thing that comes to mind when you hear the word spring or summer? For many of us, it's that urge, knowing that car shows and cruise-ins are about to start. We start asking ourselves, "Did I get everything done on my list? Did I forget something?

So, let's back up a little today. It's almost time to put away our classic till next year. For many of us, it's time to start working on all those small and big projects that we promised to address while sitting around enjoying the sunny, warm days. That for sure will keep us busy in the upcoming colder days.

Our 63rd annual car show was a huge success. We received many compliments from the participants and vendors. The show was well organized and ran smoothly because of our chairman and our great group of volunteers. For that, I am greatly thankful. At our next business meeting in November, we will be going over the show results. What went well and what we need to change. Remember, we also have elections in the November meeting.

With Thanksgiving and Christmas right around the corner, we all have much to be thankful for. Friends, our health, and most of all, our family and our NAR family. So, enjoy the holidays, stay safe, and we will see y'all on the road with all our great classics next year.

With warm regards,
Bob

NAR Needs Members Help

NAR is already in the planning stages for next year, and we need all members help!

Our goal is to increase club membership, increase attendance at our business meetings, and at NAR events. To do so, we need suggestions from our club members. So, what are we looking for?

Exciting and informative guest speakers at our business meetings. Speakers who will pique interest and provide informative and educational content. If you know someone or someone's business, talk to them and let a NAR officer or a Board member know. And, it does not always have to be car-related.

We are always looking for interesting stories from our members. Do you have a great car story, a funny moment, or a milestone in your or your spouse's life? What about a job or personal life accomplishment? Short or long, we would like to share your moment at a business meeting or in the Spoke Folks newsletter.

Club events from museums, road trips to different restaurants, festivals, sporting events, garage crawls. If it interests you, the club may also be interested, too. Let us know!

New NAR Members Sponsorship

Help with getting new members involved. When a new member joins our club through a current member, we need that member to act as a sponsor. The sponsor should call them to remind them about meetings, events, shows, etc. Let them know what is going on and encourage them to participate in upcoming NAR activities. Let them know we appreciate them joining our club.

What If a person joins the club through the website and no sponsor is available? We need to have active members available to welcome them into our club. If you would like to share with new members what NAR is all about, please let us know.

NAR Volunteers Get Involved

We are always looking for volunteers to help out with club activities. If you have time available, let us know. Your club officers and board of directors can always use your help. Making phone calls, helping out at an event, handing out flyers, or manning the membership table. It will not take much time, but it will be very helpful and appreciated.

Remember, we are "More Than A Car Club". We are a group of people sharing the same interest. Our love and devotion to the automobile. For our club to grow, we do need everyone's help. We need your suggestions, your idea's, your thoughts. An hour here, an hour there will make a tremendous difference in our club. Thank you and remember that this is your club, and our goal is to make it an enjoyable experience that we all can be proud of.

And don't forget to go to the NAR Facebook private page for great articles, items for sale, car show pictures and a lot more information.

What are you looking for?

- Need a special car part?
- Borrow a tool?

Totcky Award

At a previous Business meeting, we discussed that the Totcky family asked us to retire the award, and we decided to do so.

We asked two club members, Chuck Nickey & Al Emmi, to review the current award criteria & make the necessary changes to bring it up to date.

The new award will be named "The NAR Restoration Award."

A new trophy is currently being made and will be presented to someone at the Christmas party if the requirements are met. The current Totcky trophy will be returned to the family at our November Business Meeting.

The NAR Restoration Award

The NAR Restoration Award can be presented once a year to qualifying vehicle(s). An annual award is not required if no vehicles meet the criteria below. The NAR Restoration Award is awarded to the member/car combo meeting the following eligibility and selection criteria, as voted on by the club officers and board:

ELIGIBILITY

For eligibility purposes, "Restoration":

May be a completed total-traditional restoration, or completion of extensive mechanical, body, interior, or preservation work without completing what we would technically call a full restoration.

Work can be accomplished over a period of years while owned by the club member; the award is for the overall body work completed while owned by the club member.

A vehicle is eligible to receive the award once; however, if a new restoration is completed under a new owner/family, the vehicle becomes eligible.

Multiple awards for incremental improvements will not be awarded, except in the case of significant damage or accident after the original award.

The award is for substantially completed work.

Restoration must have been accomplished while currently owned by the club member (not by another member, or before club member/family ownership).

The completed vehicle must have been displayed, driven to, or otherwise made available for viewing at an NAR activity, or shown at a car show, during the award year.

The vehicle is not eligible for a subsequent award for substantially the same work.

Continued

NAR Information

SELECTION CRITERIA

Preference will be given to restoration accomplished by the club member him/herself, in whole or in part.

The degree of owner/family participation (as attested by the owner/family) should be considered.

This does not preclude eligibility for cars professionally restored in the owner/family's direction.

The degree of improvement from the vehicle's starting condition, including:

The scope and difficulty of the project

Quality of the work completed

Degree of owner/family involvement

Any unusual research, fabrication, parts sourcing, or other challenges involved in completing the project

---

The NAR Restoration Award was established to replace the Totcky Trophy by order and approval of the NAR Officers and Board of Directors on this day, October 22, 2026.

The Carl Berry Award

Named for a former club member, it is presented to a club member recognized as having provided outstanding service to and promotion of the club during the year. The Berry Award is presented each year at the club's annual Christmas party. Nominations can be made to any board member. Any member that is not an officer or on the board may be nominated for this award.

The officers & board members recently changed the Berry Award wording by removing;

"Any member that is not an officer or on the board may be nominated for this award."

It was replaced with;

"Any member is eligible to be nominated for the Berry Award except the current NAR President."

1952 Packard

Roger Mays

A Tribute to My Brother Pete

I bought my 1952 Packard in February of this year.

I started out searching on eBay as I do almost every day. A low-mileage 1949 Packard caught my attention at Charvet Classic Cars in Newberry, Oregon. I made an offer on it that was rejected.

So, I then searched their website and found the 1952. After reviewing the VIN and description, I shifted my focus to purchasing the 1952. The main reason was a tribute to my brother, Pete, who was born on 21 May 1952 and died on 8 September 2025.

After a little more research, I discovered that the last 3 digits of the motor number were 521. I also found out that the current owner passed on 8 September 2025.

I decided then that I had to buy the 1952 Packard as a tribute to my brother.

I named the car "Petey"

1959 El Camino

Eddie & Kim Letson

The Road to Restoration

This is Kim's dad's car that we rebuilt piece by piece.

It was love at first sight when Dad first spotted the 1959 El Camino muscle car resting in an open garage three years after it rolled off the assembly line.

Dad loved and drove his car every day from 1962 to 1986. When Dad retired, so did his El Camino.

The years of service had been hard on her. The long road traveled resulted in parts missing, rust consuming, and time taking its toll.

The El Camino was broken, unloved, and exposed to the elements, sitting in a run-down shed for seventeen long years. In 2003, the family decided to give her new life to what was once broken, rusty, and ruined.

Classic Car Museum Closing Because Nobody Can Work on Carburetors Anymore. Now The Collection's For Sale

The in-house mechanic is retiring and the Ohio auto museum can't run without him.

Snook's Dream Cars, a nice-looking little car museum in Bowling Green, Ohio, is shutting down and liquidating after 24 years. The resident mechanic is retiring, and when the owner wasn't able to find another wrench who could keep the eclectic collection of old cars running, he decided to retire himself.

Longtime mechanic Terry Stetler, who maintained the museum's fleet of American, European, and Japanese vehicles from bygone decades is ready to do something else with his life.

"With him retiring, I haven't found anybody around that I would hire to be able to maintain the cars," Mr. Snook said.

"Kids that come out of auto trade school, they don't know about carburetors and old car stuff," he said. "There's just a lack of knowledge out there because it's harder to keep old cars on the road without qualified, skilled, professional mechanics."

Conceptually speaking, old cars are often easier to work on than new ones. There are typically fewer things to remove to access a part, and with fewer parts involved in general, trouble diagnosis can be more straightforward.

But the practical reality is a little more complicated. A bolt might be easier to reach, but if it hasn't moved in 50 years, it could be a lot harder to break loose. Same goes for diagnosis. Carburetor tuning isn't necessarily hard, but it is a bit of an art and there's a lot of "feel" involved in old car maintenance, and it's tough to understand without, well, a lot of experience.

Finally, and perhaps most importantly, there's the reality of the auto mechanic profession in general. There are not many jobs in the car world that revolve around keeping ancient cars running. And being the wrench guy at a small museum, well, it sounds really cool, but I'm guessing it's not as lucrative as working in a commercial service bay where demand is high.

All that to say, even as a carb-owner and an old car head myself, I'm not particularly surprised that Snook's Dream Cars couldn't easily find a replacement for its seasoned pro house mechanic. Though it sure is a bummer.

If you love old cars like this, the best thing you can do is start learning how to maintain them. It's only going to get harder to find shops willing to tinker with carburetors and distributor points.

Meanwhile, Snook's collection will be auctioned through Hagerty in October 2026. The lineup is quite diverse, he had a WWII Jeep, Jag XKE, an early Datsun Z, and some streamliner-style American iron. The museum is scheduled to close the week of 11 October 2026.

Unique Awards to Make Your Event Special

A unique way to make your local car show stand out from the rest is to create a special award to give out to the participants. We all go to a lot of car shows and receive plaques or trophies. With a little creativity and imagination, you can come up with a remembrance that highlights your event and gets people coming back in the future.

This might be based on where your car show is located or what type of event your car show is associated with. This September my Furniture land Chapter of the NC Region is hosting our 42nd consecutive annual car show on the grounds of the NC Transportation Museum in Spencer, NC. NCTM is located on the grounds of the former Southern Railway Maintenance Facility, which currently house a lot of train cars, cabooses & locomotives. As a result, we selected a rail theme for our award trophies. Each year we select a different type of rail car as our award. Many times we select an actual rail car which has recently been restored by the Museum.

A local furniture factory produces the blank award each year. I start out by creating a pattern which they use with their CNC router to cut the shape to be used that year from MDF. I then select a different color which they paint the blanks. Next step, I go to the local FastSigns franchise to have them develop a decal with the graphics and car show date, etc. to be applied on the train car. We have several work nights for our club members to complete the award plaques.

2026 Popular Choice Winner Trophy
Created by NAR Member
Jonathan Doumar

The result is a very unique award that people can take home to hang in a train order along the top of the wall in their garage. We also provide each of our sponsors with one of these train plaques, one of which has mounted them on the wall in his office.

Another special example is a trophy I received from the Cape Fear Chapter of the NC Region. Several years ago they hosted their meet on the grounds of the Battleship North Carolina docked in Wilmington, NC.

The Battleship at that time was having to replace some of the original teak decking, and they were offering the old decking for sale. The Chapter snapped up some of this historic teakwood and created an amazing plaque for their show winners.

As an elementary school child, I remember the State raising the money to bring the Battleship North Carolina back to Wilmington. We had fundraisers at all the local schools across the state help complete there location. So to me, having a piece of this historic battleship is so very special! It is one of my most special treasures hanging on the wall of my garage.

Another example is based on what the car show is part of. For many years, my Chapter hosted the car show at the Lexington, NC Barbeque Festival. This is a very big deal here in the South and one hundred thousand plus people attend the Festival. The car show is a big attraction and draws many people over for a look. We created trophy plaques for this event in the shape of a pig.

We have had several variations over the years and everyone really looked forward to them. This can be as simple as purchasing small plaques from Hobby Lobby and adding a pig decal with the information on it, to ordering the plaques in a pig shape with decals applied.

As you can tell I am a frequent customer at FastSigns!
